Cianna - 10/22

11/10 - Dalton

11/10 - Dalilah

Upcoming

Reading: Next week we will be on U2W5 learning about Key Details while reading various poems. We will NOT have a comprehension or vocabulary test this week. Instead, we will be taking unit skills tests that will cover all skills taught the past 4 weeks. These skills include: main idea & key details, prefixes and suffixes, multiple meaning words, & sequence.

Language Arts: Our words next week will have 3-letter blends: scr, spr, str, thr, spl, shr.

Math: Students will continue learning about adding 2 digit numbers. We will have a test on October 20th.

Grammar: We will be working on Possessive nouns.

Writing: We will be writing detail sentences.

High Frequency Words

Reminders

Grades: If you ever want ideas/games to play at home to work on specific skills, please let me know and I can gather those for you.

Early Dismissal Days: October 18, 25th

Grandparents' Night/ Book Fair: October 16th, 6-7pm.

Pumpkin Projects: Over fall break, the students are bringing home small pumpkins. These are for our Pumpkin Book Report Project. The students will pick a book and complete the book report form about a certain character. Then they will decorate the pumpkin to look like the character. The pumpkins, book report, and book are due on October 16th. I hope you have fun completing this together!
